Tips for a Pet Safe 4th of July

Even though a lot of people consider fireworks to be the highlight of the evening on July 4th, many pets are terrified of them. To keep your pets safe and stress-free during a fireworks display, it's best to keep them indoors. It helps to give your pet a favorite toy or new chew toy to keep them distracted. Also, turning on a TV or radio can help drown out loud and scary noises outside. Click here for more safety tips.
